Learning Objectives: To learn how planets, the sun, and other wonders of the solar system work and to find out how astronomers made these discoveries and to do some of the actual experiments.